

Go Medieval

At the Tower of London

August 4 – 6, 2018

A special summer holiday fun this weekend. Heading back to 1445 at the Tower with the Go Medieval festival!

In the summer of 1445, young Queen Margaret of Anjou arrived from France to marry Henry VI. To remember and to honour her arrival, there were celebrations in the Tower Moat, with feasting, sword-fighting & more. Here are some impressions.

Thanks to Tower Of London for these impressions.
